Town meeting to be held Wednesday

By: The Californian

WILDOMAR -- A town hall meeting will be held Wednesday to discuss community issues.

County Supervisor Bob Buster, who is scheduled to lead the meeting, will be joined by county officials to discuss several topics including community finances, law enforcement, fire and public safety.

Audience members will be allowed to ask questions, according to a county news release.

The meeting will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday at David A. Brown Middle School, 21861 Grand Ave. Call (951) 955-1010.

" Yet another deceitful press release! It's time to stop the abuse of both the press and the public. I've been to real "Town Hall" meetings - this was just another staged political rally in support of the County off loading Wildomar by trying to sell residents on cityhood. Give us a break. Stop and question this stuff before you print it. "
