Vision for Wildomar

A well developed, well balanced city, which will be an asset to the citizens of Wildomar.

Opposed to an increase in taxes.

Uphold Wildomar's general plan.

Preservation of the Ranch community and hillsides.

Enhancement of our urban communities, by creative use of greenbelt buffers and conformance grading throughout the urban and ranch communities.

Increase roadside easements allowing the use of landscaped earthen berms, rather than traditional ugly block walls.

Provide protective greenbelts between urban and ranch communities.

Installation of multiuse trails throughout Wildomar, for safe passage and recreational use.

Community centers for youth and seniors.

City council and citizens working cooperatively together building a successful city. Well planned ranch and urban communities in balance with income producing commercial and business park developments equals success!
